Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file depicts two nude teenage boys who are strongly sexualised by the way they have been photographed to focus the viewer's attention on their immature physical and sexual development. The image is classified as objectionable because it exploits the nudity of young persons to such a degree that its availability is likely to be injurious to the public good. An objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, but is a reasonable limitation on that right in order to prevent injury to the public good.
